

Celebrate 2000 Years of Christian History

Gloria Thomas, a convert to Catholicism and well-known religious artist, spent three years painting the glorious history of the Church in oils. Now, fine quality reproductions of her twenty-one paintings (one for each century starting with the birth of Christ) can permanently enrich your parish, school, or private collection!

The collection takes viewers on a stunning visual pilgrimage through their Christian heritage. Saints and sinners, Popes and emperors create an awe-inspiring overview of two millennia of Catholic history.

To my delight, the exhibit of narrative paintings by Gloria Thomas became an instant success in our parish. The investment has certainly been worthwhile....

— Fr. Stanley Smolenski

The exhibit kit includes:

- quality reproductions of Thomas' collection of 21 paintings (each print is 19" x 38") with gallery notes;
- 300 descriptive brochures;
- a talk on CD of the artist's tour through the centuries;
- a booklet featuring the entire collection in color with a commentary for each by historian Warren Carroll, Ph.D. (Additional CDs and booklets are available at quantity prices.)
